Covered Maternity Care

- TRICARE covers maternity care, which includes prenatal care, delivery, and postpartum care
- If TRICARE eligibility ends during the pregnancy, TRICARE does not cover any remaining maternity care, unless the family qualifies for the Transitional Assistance Management Program (TAMP) or has enrolled in the Continued Health Care Benefits Program (CHCBP)

BR401601BET0504C

Eligible Beneficiary Categories

- Expectant mothers
  - Active duty and retired service members
  - Active duty and retired family members
    - Spouse
    - Dependent daughter
- Newborns
  - Newborn claims are billed separately from claims for expectant mothers
  - Dependent daughter's newborn is covered under TRICARE if the father of the baby is an active duty or retired service member

BR401601BET0504C

Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS)

- Sponsor must register newborn in DEERS
  - Obtain a copy of your child's birth certificate or certificate of live birth
- Newborn is covered under TRICARE Prime for the first 120 days after birth
  - At least one family member is enrolled in TRICARE Prime or TRICARE Prime Remote
  - Fill out enrollment application and enroll in DEERS to ensure continuous TRICARE Prime Coverage
- After 120 days, newborn claims will process as TRICARE Standard if not enrolled in DEERS and formally enrolled in TRICARE Prime
- Eligibility for TRICARE Standard ends 365 days after birth for newborns who are not properly registered in DEERS

Maternity Health Care Choices—Military Treatment Facilities (MTFs)

- Facilities of choice for all TRICARE beneficiaries
- Offers family-centered care for the least out-of-pocket costs to beneficiaries—overall the best value
- TRICARE Prime enrollees have priority access to care
- Beneficiaries using TRICARE Extra or TRICARE Standard may seek care at the MTF if space is available, but are not required to use the MTF for maternity care

BR401601BET0504C

MTFs—Family-Centered Care

- Offers families standardized services starting with the first obstetric visit and continuing after the birth of the child
- Respect for your emotional well-being, privacy, and personal preferences
- Empowerment through honoring your family's personal and cultural beliefs
- Choices in treatment
- Flexibility to welcome fathers, significant others, and siblings to be a part of your childbirth experience

BR401601BET0504C

MTFs—Family-Centered Care

- Improved continuity of providers for prenatal care
- Careful, seamless coordination between facilities if you need to transfer
- Personalized pain management
- Individualized birth plans
- Improved access to first trimester appointments
- Private postpartum rooms
- Lactation education and support

BR401601BET0504C

Maternity Health Care Choices—Civilian Facilities

- TRICARE Prime beneficiaries may be able to seek care from TRICARE network if MTF cannot provide services
- TRICARE Extra beneficiaries seek care from TRICARE network providers
- TRICARE Standard beneficiaries seek care from any TRICARE-authorized provider

BR401601BET0504C

TRICARE Prime

- In most cases, expectant mothers enrolled in TRICARE Prime will have their prenatal care and deliveries in an MTF
- No annual deductibles
- No enrollment fees for active duty family members; retirees and family members pay $230/individual or $460/family
- Copayments are less under TRICARE Prime
- Newborns are deemed TRICARE Prime enrollees if at least one family member is enrolled in TRICARE Prime

TRICARE Prime Maternity Referrals and Authorizations

- Must obtain a referral from the primary care manager (PCM) for civilian maternity care
- Authorization includes prenatal and postnatal care, including a six-week follow-up visit
- The referral does not include conditions not related to pregnancy (i.e., a sprained ankle, ear infection)

BR401601BET0504C

Additional Maternity Authorizations

- For other specialty care or more than 16 office visits
  - This includes perinatal, genetic, special testing procedures, and high-risk pregnancies
- If the admission is not authorized, you will be responsible for TRICARE Prime point-of-service (POS) charges

BR401601BET0504C

Maternity Care—Point-of-Service Option

- Maternity care from a network provider without obtaining a referral: POS option
- Responsible for annual deductible
  - $300 for an individual
  - $600 for a family
- Out-of-pocket cost-shares
  - 50% of the TRICARE allowable charge.
- Responsible for any additional charges from non-network providers, up to 15% above the TRICARE allowable charge

BR401601BET0504C

Should you Disenroll from TRICARE Prime?

- Before you do…
  - Check for available TRICARE network or authorized obstetricians
  - Check for available TRICARE network or authorized pediatricians for your newborn
  - Consider the increased costs not only for maternity care, but also for other health care

BR401601BET0504C

Converting to TRICARE Extra or TRICARE Standard

- Must disenroll from TRICARE Prime
- Subject to a one-year lockout from TRICARE Prime
  - Does not apply to families whose sponsor is E-4 or below
- Patients needing medical attention, other than maternity care, will be subject to TRICARE Extra or TRICARE Standard cost-shares and deductibles
- Care at MTF on a space-available basis—no guaranteed access to care at the MTF

BR401601BET0504C

Maternity Expenses—TRICARE Extra and TRICARE Standard

- Prenatal care, labor and delivery, and postnatal care with a civilian provider
  - Beneficiaries are responsible for annual deductibles and cost-shares
- The amount of the cost-share varies based on the length of stay in the hospital and the medical needs of the mother and baby

BR401601BET0504C

TRICARE Extra

- Seek maternity care from TRICARE network providers
- Annual deductibles apply when you choose to deliver at home or as an outpatient
  - Active duty family members
    - E1-E4: $50/individual and $100/family
    - E5 and above: $150/individual and $300/family

If Your Sponsor is Mobilized

- The other parent or guardian should be prepared to show power of attorney to register newborn in DEERS
- Some expectant mothers may elect to return to their families while their sponsor is mobilized and/or deployed
- These beneficiaries must follow certain guidelines to ensure that their claims are paid and that point-of-service (POS) charges are not incurred
- This refers to moves within and outside of your current region
